The Starry Night

The Starry Night is an oil-on-canvas painting by the Dutch Post-Impressionist painter Vincent van Gogh. Painted in June 1889, it depicts the view from the east-facing window of his asylum room at Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, just before sunrise, with the addition of an imaginary village.

Van Gogh Museum

Overview

The Van Gogh Museum is a Dutch art museum dedicated to the works of Vincent van Gogh and his contemporaries in the Museum Square in Amsterdam South, close to the Stedelijk Museum, the Rijksmuseum, and the Concertgebouw. The museum opened on 2 June 1973, and its buildings were designed by Gerrit Rietveld and Kisho Kurokawa.

The museum contains the largest collection of Van Gogh's paintings and drawings in the world. In 2017, the museum had 2.3 million visitors and was the most-visited museum in the Netherlands, and the 23rd-most-visited art museum in the world. In 2019, the Van Gogh Museum launched the Meet Vincent Van Gogh Experience, a technology-driven "immersive exhibition" on Van Gogh's life and works, which has toured globally.

Roman Statue Exhibition

Overview

- Paris, france
- Saturday, 15 August 2022
07:00 AM - 11:00 AM

In the world of the Ancient Greeks and Romans sculpture was one of the most important means of expression and communication. Every single statue, head and relief was produced with an eye to its specific purpose and message. In most cases the sculpture was set up in the public space, e.g. the city's market place, burial ground, theatre and sanctuary. The multiple meanings and functions of sculpture in Antiquity can be experienced in the fourteen rooms which house Glyptoteket's extensive collection of ancient sculpture from the Mediterranean world – primarily from Greece and the Roman Empire. The exhibition is a journey through a crucial chapter in European cultural history. From around 600 BCE when Greek large-scale sculpture emerged, to c. 400 CE the Roman Empire. When its form of government and religion, had to make way for Christianity and the Empire of Byzantium.
