On the third of March, the police force of the province of Ontario revealed confiscation of more than 1,000 paintings. The group of counterfeiters used forced child labour as the abuse of talented young Indigenous artists

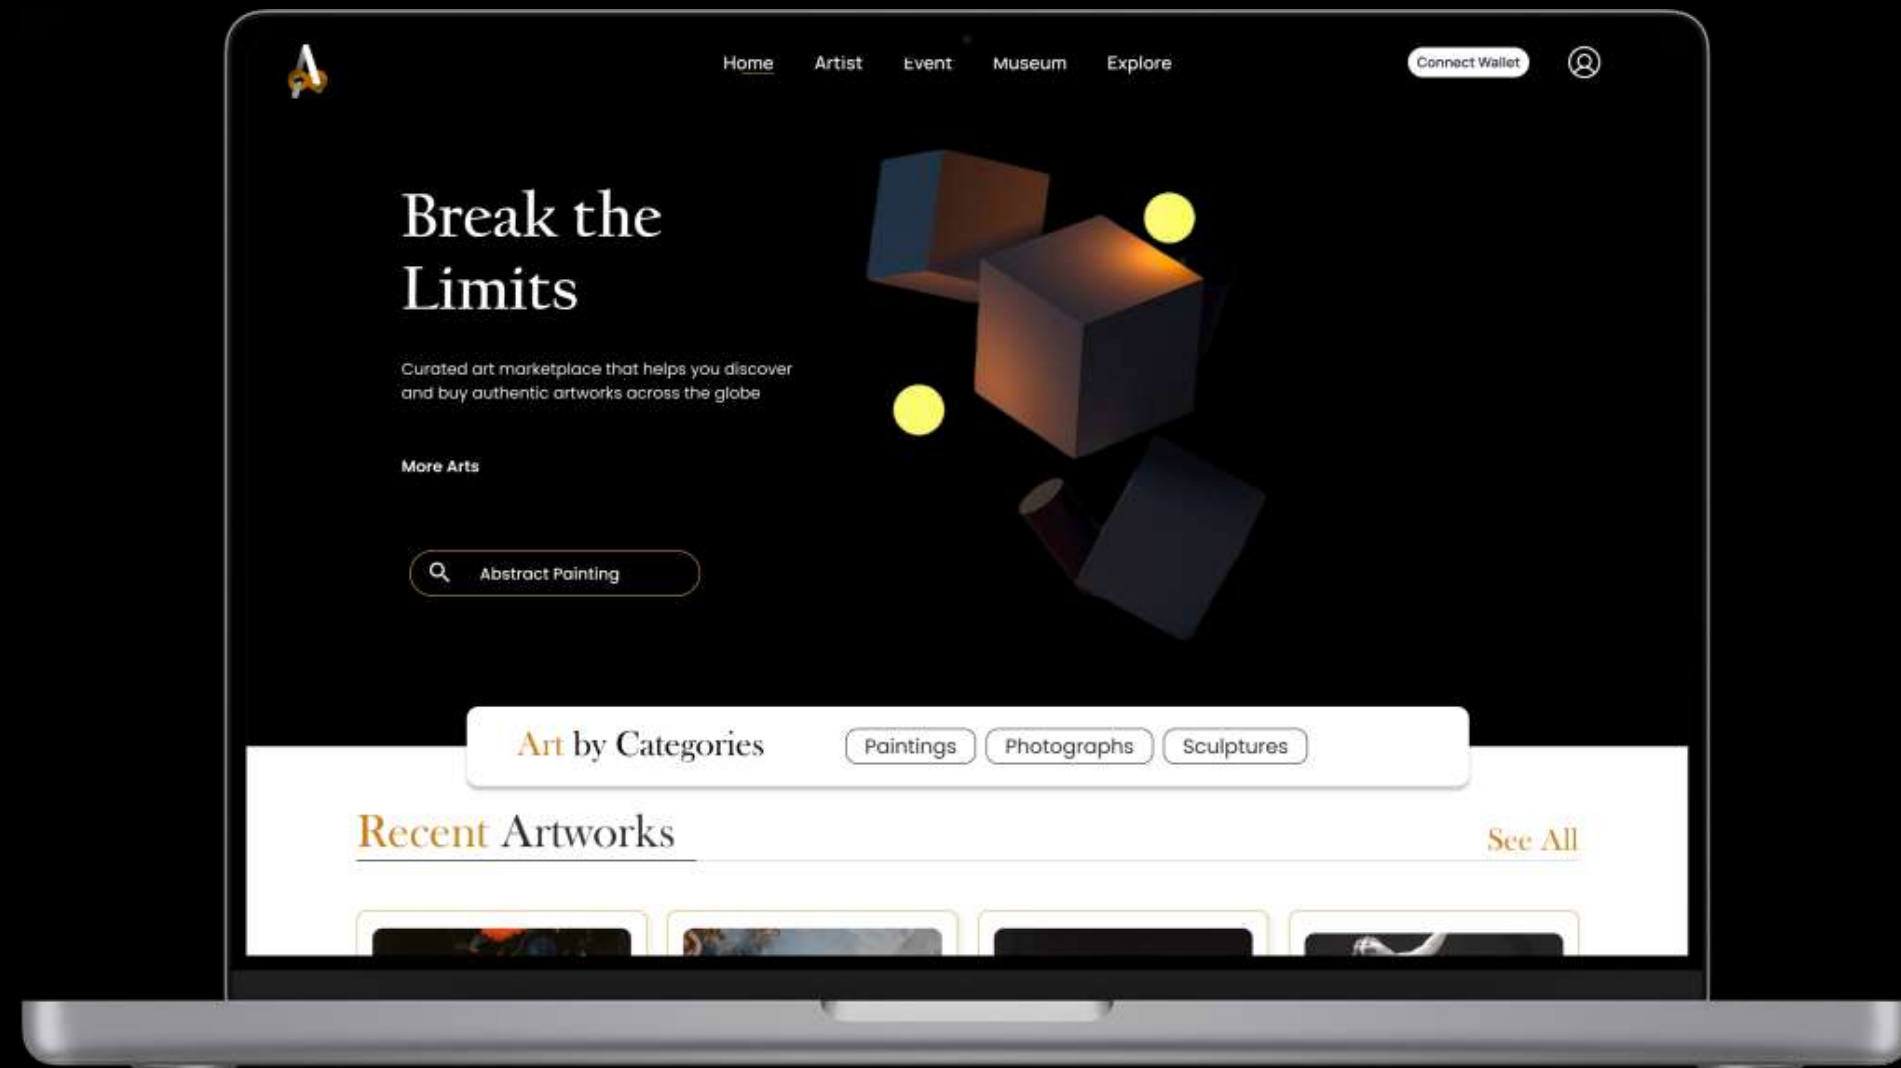

Besides forgery of artworks, artists also lack a place to market their works. This affects the welfare of the artists who are low and causes a decrease in the number of artist professions in Indonesia. According to data from the Central Bureau of Statistics, the number of artist professions in Indonesia has decreased by 23% from 2019 to 2022.

Small enterprises contribute up to 60% of the national Gross Domestic Product (GDP) In Indonesia.

However, many Small enterprises are not digitally literate and have not utilized the potential of online markets.

ArtBeat

Artbeat is a curated art marketplace that aims to connect people who appreciate arts and artists who are working with physical or digital mediums. On our platform, we not only sell artworks but we also sell products from small artists that are sold by small enterprises in Indonesia in various forms such as shoes, bags, necklaces, and more.

Now with Web3 technology, the art ecosystem will be more thriving!

Tokenized Certificate of Authenticity

All the artworks sold on our platform have an NFT certificate as a sign of ownership. By using blockchain technology, it makes everything more secure and valid.

Colaboration

We have collaborated with more than 30 artists in the world.

We have collaborated with top brands in Indonesia.
